Additional information

This new, comfortable and modern apartment building offers everything you need in a home: calm atmosphere, closeness of a white sand beach, 2-3-room apartments with sunny balconies and terraces, high-quality materials and energy-saving solutions (central - underfloor heating, separate ventilation, solar panels on the house roof, etc.). The 3-storey apartment house built by Mesiheina Road 6 is located near the town of Pärnu, near the Valgeranna golf course and sandy beach.

The apartment building with its spacious southern terraces and balconies creates unique Italian architecture and design. Energy efficiency is guaranteed by the new building material Climablock, which is the highest level of construction. New two-and three-room A-class apartments are with spacious terraces on the ground floor and large balconies on II and III. The square meters of two-room apartments are between 41.8-50.8m² and the size of three-room apartments are between 68.2-68.8m². All three-room apartments are planned through the house which allows more light and views to different directions.
